BPF Brexit Seminar 2019

What impact will Brexit have on the British Plastics industry and how will it affect your business and your bottom line? The BPF will look to explore these themes and will drill down into specific areas of concern for our industry including REACH, Rules of Origin, Tax and CE Marking at this important event.

Listen to presentations from Kings College, BEIS and the CBI in this one-day seminar.

Who should attend: This seminar is aimed at senior and middle managers from companies in the plastics industry who want to discover the impact of Brexit on their organisation.
