Plastics Recycling:
Exploring New Opportunities

Tuesday
7th October
2008

Stoke Moat House
Stoke-on-Trent,
Festival Way
ST1 5BQ

This one day event will explore the emerging opportunities available to boost further plastics recycling in the UK against the backdrop of legislative, commercial and international developments, such as the recent amendments to the Waste Framework Directive and restrictions on the importation of post consumer waste to other countries.

Subjects covered will include;

♦ Opportunities for increasing plastics recycling in the UK
♦ Accessing usable waste
♦ Advances in recycling technologies
♦ Developing new products with plastics recyclate
♦ Accessing training for plastics waste management

This event is aimed at all stakeholders public and private, with an interest in the plastics recycling sector, providing delegates with an objective appreciation for the current and future opportunities for plastics recycling.
