SPEAKERS BIOGRAPHIES

Peter Davis, British Plastics Federation

Peter Davis has been the Director General of the British Plastics Federation from 1st October 1997. Before that he was the Chief Executive of Incpen (The Industry Council for Packaging and the Environment) from October 1993 - September 1997. He has previously been Director of Marketing; Membership and International Affairs at the Royal Institute of British Architects; Head of Home Affairs in the Conservative Research Department and Special Adviser to Environment Secretary Kenneth Baker MP.

Peter is a Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Horners, the plastics industry’s Livery company in London. He has also held the position of Deputy Chairman of the Enterprise Forum (a business contact group with Coalition Ministers) since 1997.

Síle Lane, Sense about Science

Síle joined Sense About Science as Public Liaison in February 2009 from a career as a stem cell researcher. As Public Liaison Síle worked with regulatory bodies, civic society organisations, the media and policy makers to ensure the public always has access to the best science and evidence. She supported patient groups and medical research charities to promote the tools of scientific thinking and challenge misleading claims.

Philip Law, British Plastics Federation

Philip Law is the Public & Industrial Affairs Director at the British Plastics Federation, the UK Plastics Association, with more than 400 members. Philip was born in Lancaster, England, in 1954 and he holds qualifications from the Universities of Nottingham, York and Oxford. Philip joined the BPF in 1978 and in 2008 he was honoured with the award for Personal Contribution to the Plastics Industry at the Plastics Industry Awards.

He is a former Chairman of the European Plastics Converters Association’s Environment Committee in Brussels.

Claire Shrewsbury, WRAP

Claire has over 20 years experience of working in the environmental field. She has managed a number of government programmes that promote both environmental improvements and cost benefits to industry.

Claire is currently the Packaging Programme Area Manager responsible for the delivery of the packaging target under the third phase of Courtauld and developing infrastructure for mixed plastics sorting and processing in England.

Daniel Stricker, Plastics Information Europe

Daniel Stricker is 53 years old and has been involved in the plastics industry for more than 20 years in different positions. Since 1999 Daniel has been senior editor with KI, the leading newsletter for the European plastics industry with more than 4,000 subscribers. Since 2003 he has been KI’s editor in chief and deputy editor of PIE.

Daniel has given lectures on plastics topics since 1989 and regularly speaks on trends in polymer prices.
